

DAV RAO HARISHCHANDRA ARYA PUBLIC SCHOOL NAGPUR

Report on Rakhi Making, Madhubani Painting and Hawan

Date: 22 August 2026

School: DAV Rao Harishchandra Arya Public School, Nagpur

A special activity was organised on 22 August 2026 to celebrate the spirit of Rakhi and Indian traditional art. The programme included Rakhi Making, Madhubani Painting and Hawan, providing students with an opportunity to explore creativity, culture and traditional values.

Students of Classes I to V participated enthusiastically in the Rakhi Making Activity. They created colourful and attractive Rakhis using different decorative materials. The activity encouraged creativity, fine motor skills and the values of love, care and the special bond between brothers and sisters.

Students of Classes VI to IX participated in the Madhubani Painting Activity. They explored the traditional folk-art style of Madhubani painting and created beautiful artwork using traditional patterns, motifs and vibrant designs. The activity helped students appreciate India's rich cultural heritage while developing their artistic skills.

The programme also included a Hawan, which created a peaceful and spiritual atmosphere. Students and teachers participated with devotion, seeking blessings and promoting the values of harmony, positivity and well-being.

The activities were conducted with great enthusiasm and participation. The programme successfully combined creativity, culture, spirituality and traditional values, making the day meaningful and memorable for the students.
